EVENTS ON CALENDAR

Art & Design Lab for High School Students

Art + Design Lab for High School Students: Mapping (in) the Museum
03.19.2015, 3:30 – 6pm
Fain Gallery

These free classes for high school students explore how art and design provoke fresh ideas, elicit conversation, and stimulate creativity. Each monthly session focuses on specific themes and techniques and is led by Artist-Educators. Classes are free but sign up is required.

March Session: Mapping (in) the Museum
When you're lost, where do you turn? What are the maps that help you navigate your past, your present, and your future? Though mapping exercises both practical and fantastic we'll navigate personal, art historical, and spatial borders, territories, and relationships.
Class dates: 3.05, 3.12, 3.19 and 3.26
